Animal Farm: By
George Orwell
Speaking and Listening Presentation:
To Explain, Describe, Narrate
Teacher: S Webber

1. We have chosen Commandment 7, "All Animals are Equal"
2. The reasoning behind the commandment is the animals were cruelly dictated by Mr Jones. The ideal that Old Major portrayed was of a Farm run solely by animals for animals that were part of a Democracy.

Evidence is on page 6 in both Longman and Penguin version, where it states in Old Majors Speech "...no animal must ever tyrannize over his own kind. Weak or strong, clever or simple, we are all brothers".

Further on in the story, Napoleon tyrannizes all of the farm animals. He kills ruthlessly with no reasoning and makes every animal that is not a pig or dog to slave over the labours of building the windmill with less food than in Jones' days of dictatorship.

3. Early warning signs that the pigs are starting to manipulate the Commandment for their own ends can be found at the
